Por ejemplo, digamos que las drogas (marihuana y alguna experimentación con las anfetaminas) son problemáticas en la vida de María, pero no constituyen el centro de los problemas de ella. Un problema más grande es el hecho de que ella no quiere encarar las responsabilidades de la vida adulta (por cualquier razón) y usó las drogas como un medio de escapar de la vida. La exploración muestra que ella no está alta y emocionalmente envuelta en el uso de las drogas, así que esta es una faceta de un problema más amplio que podría ser manejado relativamente más fácilmente. Con la ayuda del orientador, María deja su experimentación con anfetaminas y disminuye el uso de marihuana.
